Margaret Whitelaw

grandmother was induced to come by a "piper" from Sauk. She was a dressmaker by trade and when she got here she hired herself out for several weeks at a time to each family to make the entire wardrobe for that family - mens suits and underclothes included. After while she was furnished material by various stores and made suits for them to sell "over the counter". How many of the Foreign settlers came to this country. Margaret Whitelaw
[?] Montgomery History

In order to more quickly settle a community a man would be [commissioned??] to go to the country [?] from which most [of?] the foreigners' had come and induce a great number to come back with him. Mrs. Whitelaw
